LAKESIDE RACING.

F. J. Kittleman's Kallikrates—Paradox gelding, Myth, came from the California tracks to Lakeside with a shady reputation and credited with being a most rank in-and-out. He may have been a bad horse on the coast, but here he has raced most consistently.

Myth has started five times since his arrival and won three races, was second once and unplaced once. This is certainly a good showing. His first start was at one mile and a sixteenth, and Tenby, who has since proven himself to be a horse far above the ordinary, beat him. He was started right back the next day, and although a 1 to 2 shot, won easily at a mile. His third appearance was at seven furlongs, and he finished fourth to Braw Lad, Meddler and Donna Rita. Owner Kittleman claims the gelding would have won that race, but on leaving the post he was hit in the eye with a clod of mud and almost blinded. Since then Myth started twice and won in both instances, off by himself.

Yesterday Myth was pitted up against Hurricane, a stake winner in the south, and was carrying 116 pounds to Hurricane's 105. The latter was made favorite at odds on and 6 to 5 was offered against Myth. There was nothing to the race. Myth just galloped under restraint behind Hurricane and King's Guard until the stretch was reached, then moved up on the inside and won hard held by about three lengths. Hurricane ran a fair race but had to be whipped out to beat King's Guard for the place.

Jockey Nutt had an inning, and by superior riding at the finish won two races by narrow margins. His first victory was on Dalgretti in the eight and one-half furlongs race. After getting badly interfered with on the first turn, Nutt went around the bunch and picking his horses up one by one was neck and neck with the favorite, Robert Bonner, in the stretch. He soon shook the latter off, but about the sixteenth post along came Dr. Marks and the pair had a battle royal from there to the end. Dalgretti, staggering and all out, got the verdict by a nose.

Nutt came right back again in the fifth race and won on Papa Harry. The finish on the latter was a clever piece of horsemanship and worthy of comment. He was obliged to come wide on the stretch turn to avoid interference, and at the drawgate was joined by Marco Polo. The pair from there to the judges' stand had a nodding finish, and, although Marco Polo was the better of the two, Nutt managed to beat him by clearly outfinishing H. Brown.

Goebel, easily beaten on account of a bad ride by Free Hand last Monday, turned the tables on the latter in the third race. Goebel got away third and going right on to the front, was a half length to the good at the finish. Free Hand was badly interfered with at the start and finished last but one. She could not have beaten Goebel though with clear sailing and Clay's ride on him Monday will probably be investigated.

Banbury was favorite for the opening four and a half furlong dash, and getting off with the lead, he won all the way. Pauline J. won the last race in just the same way from Mc-Albert and Lobangula. Bright Night, the favorite, after much interference, was fourth.

EASTERN TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

Competent critics are of the opinion that no really high class two-year-old has as yet cropped up in the course of western racing, F. W. Brode being probably the best that has so far shown. Down east, however, an opinion is current to the effect that quite a number of good ones have already been uncovered with more to come. On this point the New York Journal of Monday says:

"The one fact made evident by the result of the Champion Stallion Stakes at Morris Park on Saturday was that the season's two-year-olds are on the whole of excellent class. Without any intention of robbing Pupil of any of the glory of his victory, one is compelled to admit that in the bunch behind him were several that before the season is much further advanced, will give him a stronger argument than they did on Saturday, and in some cases they are almost sure to beat him.

"As for His Royal Highness, his showing bears out the claims made after his defeat by Doublet in the Juvenile Stakes—that is, he is a colt of marvellous speed, but lacks staying ability. His owner, John Daly, does not take this view. He believes him one of the best colts he ever owned, and this means a marvellously good one, for 'Holmdel' has produced some mighty speedy ones in recent years.

"Had the race on Saturday been four and one-half furlongs, he would have won under a pull, but that extra sixteenth brought a collapse that dilled the merit of what he had shown earlier in the struggle. It is true his rider, H. Martin, lost some ground by taking him over toward the outside rail, but when Pupil challenged there was no response. One would judge from the way he was running that there was a lot in reserve, but when let down he was as willing to stop as those that had been under punishment for the greater part of the journey. Until he has shown a better disposition to run on, he must be put down as a sprinter.

"Pupil's showing was flawless. He was somewhat handicapped by a lot of dead weight in the saddle, for Odom can ride at eighty-six pounds, still the little boy put up a finish as strong and vigorous, with a rush as well timed, as though he was a veteran in place of a recent graduate from the apprentice ranks. Pupil's stable companion, Modrine, generally believed to be the better of the pair, was prominent for about three furlongs, then retired.

"St. Finnan is another that seems entitled to one more chance before being put on the list of over-rated ones. Those who have watched his work all spring still claim he is pounds the best of the lot that Marcus Daly sent east, which means Inishfree, Motley, Montanic and several more of unquestioned merit.

"Virginia Earle's race was in every way a satisfactory one, but for the fact that she failed to get a share of the purse.

"Vulcan, which earned the short end of the purse, was added to the list of starters at the last minute. When it became known that he was to run several trainers sought out his owner, H. Eugene Leigh, and chaffed him about his anxiety to pay starting fees.

"Knight of Rhodes was well up all through the race, and he, like St. Finnan, looks like a colt that will improve with time. De Lacy's showing must have been disappointing to William C. Whitney. When his agent, Sydney Paget, purchased this colt the other day it was probably with a view of capturing this race. Few of the horsemen believed he would be a factor in the struggle, and their view proved the correct one."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A typographical error made the closing odds on Meddler in the fifth race at Lakeside Tuesday read 13 to 10 when 13 to 20 was the correct quotation.

Steeplechase Jockey Horton, who was on Tentore when he fell while running in the Grand National Steeplechase at Morris Park Saturday, was so injured that he died Sunday night.

Jockey Aker has been released from his contract to ride for W. H. May & Son, and will ride for W. M. Wallace for the remainder of the season.

Winner—Ch. c, by Ban Chief—Medusa III.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden but with considerable left; second cleverly. Third and fourth driving. Banbury was the best. He was fortunate in getting away well and had the most speed of the party. Knight took no chances and hand-rode the colt the last quarter. Jeff ran an honest race. He is about due to win although a bad actor at the post. Mark Georgetown II. He was away poorly, had a bad journey but stood it gamely and ran a cracking good race. Ravenswood also ran a good race and finished like a wild horse. This colt wants a route to do his best. Man of Honor stopped all of a sudden on the far turn. He is a good looker but nowhere near ready. Bluerina had no speed; neither had Chump.

Scratched—12082 Bertha Laurence, 93.
Overweights—Bluerina, 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. g, by Kallierates—Paradox.
Post 3 minutes. Start good for all but Mammy. Won eased up. It was a drive for the place. Myth played with his field. He is good now and was well ridden. Weber waited in behind Hurricane and King's Guard until the stretch was reached then cantered by the pair as though they were tied. They swung very wide on the turn, giving Myth plenty of room to get through. Hurricane is a fast colt but is none too game. He may have been short, though, today, and if so this race will do him good. King's Guard ran a cracking good race. He hung to Hurricane all the way. The first three were the only contenders. Mammy was given two chances, but refused to break and was 1 ft.

Myth, place, out. Hurricane, place, out. King's Guard, show, out.

Winner—B. c, by Bubbler—Morning Bride.
Off at first break to a good start. Won hand ridden and tiring; second and third driving hard. Goebel had all the luck. He was about the only horse in the race not interfered with. This made him win. There was a bad mix-up at the start, Rosavannah, Free Hand and Cyril all being badly interfered with. The former was knocked to her knees. Alma Glyn was the cause of all the trouble. Booker broke in front on the outside but immediately cut across the track. Al Lone was weakly ridden. She saved considerable ground on the stretch turn and a smart boy on her might have stolen the race. Alma Glyn is consistent. Scatcohen after running all around her field made a strong bid at the head of the stretch but died away. The races of Cyril, Rosavannah and Free Hand must be thrown out on account of the early interference.

Scratched—119042 Brigade, 104.
Overweights—Kittie Hero, 5 pounds; Free Hand, 4; Scatcohen, 34.
Goebel, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Alma Glyn, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Al Lone, show, 2 to 1. Cyril, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Free Hand, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g, by The Sailor Prince—Daisy.
Off at first break to a perfect start. Won in a hard drive; second and third also driving. Dalgretti came to life with a sudden start and ran a fine race. He had to be the best to win considering the way he was interfered with on the first turn. At that point he was shut off and almost thrown, causing Nutt to take him up and go around the others. Dr. Marks seemed stiff and sore the first part of the route and propped all the way down the backstretch. He got to going smoothly the last quarter and finished like a good horse. Robert Bonner was worn out racing in front. Had Bloss placed him the early part of it he would have run a better race. Black Fonso ran above his mark and Yours Truly far below his. The latter, however, was badly cut off on the far turn. Admetus was badly outrun. He seems to be in bad form.

Scratched—12153 Fred Barr, 112; 12185 Miss Ross, 107.
Dalgretti, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Dr. Marks, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Robert Bonner, place, 1 to 3; show, out. Admetus, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. g, by Little Minch—Sunshine.
Off at first break to a good start. It was a long hard drive and a pretty finish between the first two. Nutt outdied H. Brown. Marco Polo was the best. He was off in a pocket and was obliged to bump his way through on the far turn. In doing so he collided with Orensua and knocked her completely off her stride. The latter is a small filly and caromed off Marco Polo like a rubber ball. This was the cause of her stopping so suddenly. Nutt had H. Brown where the latter was unable to use his whip through the stretch. Chenier, after much interference, finished very strong. Nellie Fonso ran a good race. Loyal Girl stopped to a walk at the finish.

Overweights—Nellie Fonso, 5 pounds; Chenier, 2.

Winner—B. f, by Julien—Pauline.
Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; the next three were very busy. Pauline J. was presented with a flying start and always had a clear course. She was very lucky to win. Bright Night was far the best. He was knocked about and badly interfered with down the backstretch and was pocketed all the last quarter. McAlbert was well handled, had clear sailing and ran a good race. Lobengula is evidently a "has been." K. C. would not try a yard. Wild West was practically left at the post.

Overweights—Idle Hour, 3 pounds.
Pauline J., place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. McAlbert, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Lobengula, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Bright Night, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3.
